

The Welcome Centre

at Pier Avenue

We have two main halls, which will each hold between 100 and 150 people. The two halls are linked by our Atrium. The Atrium houses its own servery and seating areas. Access to the Internet Lounge is via the Atrium also.

At the main entrance to the building, we have the Friendship Lounge, which will hold up to around 40 people. Leading off from this is the Quiet Room which is ideal for small committees and counselling.

Finally, there is the main sanctuary, which will accommodate up to around 350 people.

The Friendship Lounge & Quiet Room

The Friendship Lounge is at the entrance of the main building, and will hold around 40 people. The Friendship Lounge also has a coffee bar. Leading off this, is the Quiet Room, which is ideal for counselling sessions, or for small committees.

The Internet Lounge

The Internet Lounge houses computers behind a moveable partition. This space is ideal for seminars, or small groups.

The Atrium & Welcome Hall

The Atrium is the heart of the Welcome Centre project. Here, there is an area to relax, or to enjoy drinks from the servery. The Atrium has been designed to be bright with its large roof lights. From here is access to the two halls and the Internet Lounge.

The Welcome Hall is light and airy, and takes around 100 people seated at tables, and 150 people seated more formally. It is ideal for all kinds of groups. The main kitchen can be used to provide meals as required.

The Fellowship Hall

The Fellowship Hall takes around 120 people seated. The Fellowship Hall has its own stage with sound and lighting systems. A corridor leads off to the Atrium and to the toilet and shower facilities. This hall also has a kitchenette.

PABC is the home of the 'Enfold Project', which offers breakfasts and support to the homeless, and provides access to showers, benefits advice and other support services. As part of this, there is also the Community Money Advice, which offers free, impartial debt advice.

WiFi

WiFi access is available throughout the building. Please ask for details prior to your visit.

Extras

We have a few extras which are available with each space. Please ask for details.
